The Supreme Court of Jamaica
King Street
Kingston

RE: MEDICAL REPORT FOR PEACHES BURKE

Dear Sir / Madam

I am Dr Ijah Thompson, medical officer with training and practical experience in all specialties through working at The University Hospital of the West Indies, Spanish Town Hospital, May Pen Hospital, Andrews Memorial Hospital and clinics in the Kingston and St Andrew Region. I have a Bachelors of Medicine and Surgery Degree from the University of the West Indies and I am a fully registered member of The Medical Association of Jamaica. I act impartially as an expert witness for the court.

Patient Demographics

Ms. Burke is a thirty-four (34) year old female of a St. Catherine address. She partakes routinely as a dressmaker.

Relevant Past History

She had no known illnesses or disability at the time of her accident.

History and presenting complaint

The above patient was seen and cared for by myself at Angels Health Care Centre for injuries received during a motor vehicle accident on February 22, 2006. She was seen during the period February 24, 2006 to present. The following is a summary of her care. She gave a history of being a front seat passenger in a car, which was hit from behind by another car, resulting in pains and injuries her neck, shoulder and back. There was no history of loss of consciousness. There was no ear, nose or throat bleeds noted.

Relevant Examination Findings

When examined the following significant signs were elicited:

- Tenderness along the cervical and lumbar spine with mild stiffness and reduced range of motion
- Discomfort to the right shoulder
- Normal neurovascular findings

Impression

1. Acute whiplash injury
2. Back strain
3. Soft tissue injury to the right shoulder

Investigations

X-rays were reposted as normal.

Treatment

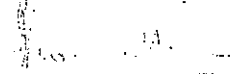

She was placed on a total of six (6) weeks sick leave: analgesics and muscle relaxants were given. She was advised to wear a cervical collar and was referred for physiotherapy.

Follow up and prognosis

With active physiotherapy she should recover well.

I understand my duties to the court as set out in rule 32.3 and 32.4 of the civil procedures rule 2002. I have complied with duty in preparing this report. All matters within my knowledge and expertise have been given together with all details, which may affect the validity of my report.

Yours sincerely,

Dr. Ijah Thompson
